

Title IX

- Enforced by the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights.
- Protects people from discrimination based on sex, including sexual orientation and gender identity in education programs or activities that receive federal financial assistance.
- Under Title IX, sexual discrimination includes harassment on the basis of sex.

This can happen many ways including:

Verbal or written harassment

Sexual assault, including rape and other unwanted sexual touching

Stalking (when on the basis of sex)

Dating or domestic violence
